PRINCIPAL'S / SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL REPORT

The past year was one of dynamic change at Sangaree Intermediate School. Our students demonstrated above average performance academically and artistically. They engaged in a number of service learning activities that benefited other students as well as the community.

The year's accomplishments included:

- * 77% of students performed "Basic" or above on PACT 2000 Eng/LA assessment;
- * Six students were PTSA Reflections Contest regional winners;
- * Our school was the largest contributor in the tri-county area to the U.S. Marine Corps annual "Toys For Tots" campaign;
- * We received a $7500 DHEC Ecological Grant for Environmental Investigations;
- * We had the largest representation among middle schools for All-County Band;
- * We received the DHEC Champions of the Environment award;
- * Students and staff contributed over $7,000 to the American Heart Association by participating in "Jump Rope for Heart";
- * Seven students received district science fair recognition; Thomas Wilkinson was the overall district winner; and
- * The Arts Awareness Program provided instruction by five visiting artists.

Jennie Davis was selected Teacher of the Year. All of our teachers continued to demonstrate a high level of professionalism. Six earned their Master's Degrees and several are currently enrolled in post-graduate education. An increased number of teachers participated in professional development conferences and many served on district committees.

We enjoyed a successful year with our PTSA and School Improvement Council. Their efforts raised $8500.00 for improved and enhanced learning opportunities for our students. Our school's PTSA experienced a 150-member increase over last year.

Sangaree Intermediate School continues to be a great place to learn and grow.
